Gregg Tracey, 1950 - 2023

We at Power House Art would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to one of our own: Gregg A. Tracey, a fixture here since the beginning of Power House, fought the good fight and left us on June 01, 2023. Those who were fortunate to know Gregg will remember his calm demeanor, sense of humour and overall tremendous personality that filled any room he entered. Through his art, whether it be painting, carving, building musical instruments, woodblock printing, or tending to his proud garden, his love for life shone through. To Nancy, Tim and his entire family, we share in the immense loss, but are grateful that his art has, and will continue to bring a portion of the joy that he shared with everyone.

It was Gregg's wish that his woodblock prints continue to be made, and we are honoured that we will be continuing in this tradition. As it will take some time to navigate the waters of this new endeavour, we ask patience as we learn the process properly to allow Gregg's original intent to be perfected. We hope to have the first run of prints ready by the opening of our 14th season in 2024. Until then, there are still a number of Gregg's prints, paintings, posters and cards available.

"I rub my prints into existence with my bare hands-I feel the print forming on the carved contours in a board of choice-my hands & fingers push down the paper into the crevices that no press can reach-finding the ink rollers oddities that are so useful in creativity-my world"- Gregg Tracey.
